

Artist Preference Study: Billie Eilish vs. Sabrina Carpenter

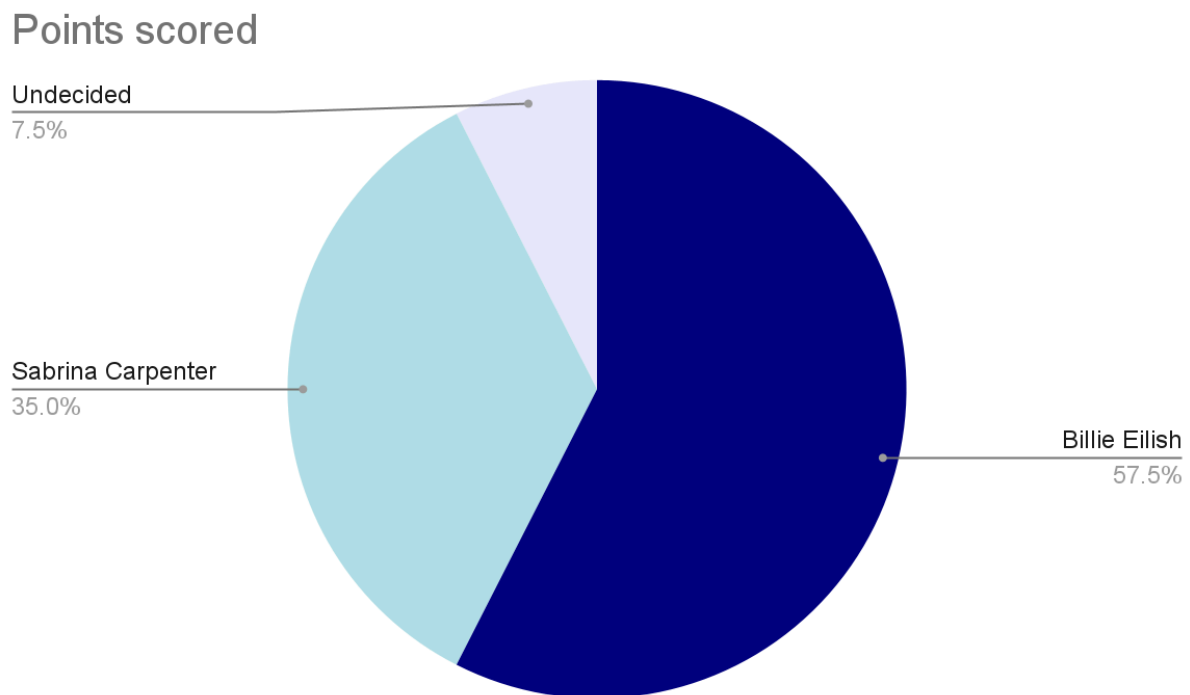

1. Executive Summary:

A brief overview of the survey conducted among 40 teenagers. It highlights the primary preference for Billie Eilish (57.5%) over Sabrina Carpenter (35%), while noting a distinct gender-based divide in the voting patterns.

2. Methodology:

- Procedure: Macro-level polling.
- Subjects: Participants were asked to choose between two prominent pop icons.
- Limitations: Demographic data (gender) was estimated via observation.

3. Key Findings & Data Visualization:

- Total Votes: Billie (23), Sabrina (14), Undecided (3).
- The Gender Gap: A significant trend was observed where Billie Eilish received the vast majority of female votes , while Sabrina Carpenter's support was predominantly male.

4. Artist Profiles:

- Billie Eilish An "Alternative-Pop" powerhouse known for her moody, experimental sound and "genre-defying" aesthetic. By 2026, she has solidified her place as a voice for emotional depth and authenticity, often appealing to those who prefer "edgy" or unconventional pop.
- Sabrina Carpenter A "Mainstream Pop" sensation celebrated for her witty wordplay, "Old Hollywood" glamour, and catchy, upbeat hits (like Espresso and Manchild). Her brand is built on charm, humor, and high-energy performance.

5. Analysis:

The data shows a massive split in who is listening to what. Billie Eilish remains the "alt-pop" queen for this group, maintaining a massive 70% female lead. Her influence has increased over the years, starting as an independent bedroom artist, she eventually evolved into a cultural phenomenon.

Sabrina Carpenter had a different result in the survey her support came almost entirely from the guys. Her "girl" charm and flirtatious lyrics have won over a huge male fan base, making her a rare pop star with a true "fanboy" army.

6. Conclusion

Even in a small group of 40, it's clear that Billie Eilish is the heavyweight favorite. However, Sabrina Carpenter's male-driven stats show she's becoming a universal pop star. With over 92% of the group picking a side, it's obvious these two are the ones actually running the 2026 music scene as the Queens.
